Editing photos for interior designer to present to client to redesign a bar with other materials like marble tile the thought was making it look like someone is walking into the ocean. I took out the chairs in the photo and put new ones and replace the blue wall with a marble tile texture. The ceiling, and the lower bar was replaced with the counter tops material.

Whatever it Takes to Get There

I hope you enjoy this collection of songs. They are inspired by the places, I've been, the people I've met and the passions I've pursued along the way. Written, created and crafted in the Pacific Northwest, the songs speak to my kaleidoscope of musical roots: Folk, Rock, Blues, Country, Soul, Gospel and all the genres that comprise Americana Music interwoven with a lifelong love of storytelling. I hope you enjoy the songs as much as I've enjoyed creating them.

The journey continues...

Enjoy!

Spence Palermo
